Common Mortgage Rescue Scams

Equity Stripping

Investors sometimes take properties from foreclosed homeowners in exchange for allowing the homeowner to stay in the property as a tenant. Because of the complexity of the transaction and false assurances given by rescue scammers, victims are often unaware that they are giving away their property and their equity. Do not sign the deed to your home over to a mortgage rescue company unless you are sure that you want to give up ownership of the home!

Bogus Counseling

Some groups calling themselves “counseling agencies” may approach you and offer to stop the foreclosure for a large fee. These could well be services you could do for yourself or available for free, such as:

- Refinancing your mortgage
- Negotiating a payment plan
- Requesting a forbearance
- Filing an insurance claim
- Entering a reverse mortgage
- Selling a home

Under new rules, mortgage relief companies may not collect any fees until they have provided consumers with a written offer from their lender or servicers that the consumer decides is acceptable, and a written document from the lender or servicer describing the key changes to the mortgage that would result if you accept the offer. A list of free HUD-approved housing counseling agencies is available at www.hopenow.com or by calling 888-995-HOPE.

Bogus Attorneys

A non-lawyer cannot help you with your legal problem. Only a licensed member of The Florida Bar can give you legal advice. If someone else helps you with your legal problem, they may be prosecuted for the unlicensed practice of law and your case may be affected. Attorneys may be exempt from the advance fee ban outlined above if they are following state law and if they place the fee in a client trust account.

Fair Lending Project

Our mission is to create equal opportunity in lending for all persons through education, investigation and enforcement. CLSMF provides a full range of fair lending services in Orange and Osceola Counties including:

- Community education presentations which explain the rights and responsibilities of renters and home buyers under fair lending laws;
- Investigations of discriminatory lending practices;
- Assistance with processing fair lending complaints; and
- Referrals of discrimination cases to attorneys for legal representation.

What To Do If You're A Victim

- Keep a written record of all attempted and actual contacts and conversations with the lender, real estate agent, mortgage broker, appraiser, loan servicer or title company.
- Keep all documents, including loan applications, letters of denial and other related materials.

FACING FORECLOSURE?

Foreclosure signs and notices cause fear in people facing the loss of their homes. But there are other signs more dangerous than a “Foreclosed home for sale” sign.

These signs are foreclosure rescue signs. If you are in foreclosure, expect to be bombarded by calls and mail from Realtors, Mortgage Companies, Attorneys and
